SECURITIES INVESTOR PROTECTION

Plaintiff,

v.

BERNARD L. MADOFF INVESTMENT
SECURITIES LLC,

Defendant.

ORDER

In re:

MADOFF SECURITIES

PERTAINS TO CASES LISTED IN EXHIBIT A

JED S. RAKOFF, U.S.D.J.:

WHEREAS:

A. Pending before the Court are various adversary proceedings commenced by Irving H. Picard, as trustee (“Trustee”) in connection with the substantively consolidated liquidation proceedings of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (“BLMIS”) and the estate of Bernard L. Madoff under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78aaa et seq., in which certain defendants (the “Defendants”) have sought withdrawal of the reference from the Bankruptcy Court to this Court by reason of one or more of the following issues: (1) whether 11 U.S.C. § 546(e) limits the Trustee’s ability to avoid transfers made by BLMIS; (2) whether provisions of the Internal Revenue Code that tax undistributed portions of Individual Retirement Accounts (“IRAs”) prevent the Trustee from avoiding IRA distributions that would otherwise be taxed; (3) whether the Trustee may, consistent with non-bankruptcy law, avoid transfers that BLMIS purportedly made in order to satisfy antecedent debts; (4) whether the Trustee has standing to pursue common law claims and, if so, whether the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act preempts the Trustee's common law claims; and (5) (a) whether Stern v. Marshall, 131 S. Ct. 2594 (2011) (the "Stern Decision") prevents the Bankruptcy Court from entering a final order or judgment resolving claims by the Trustee to avoid or recover initial or subsequent transfers as fraudulent transfers, fraudulent conveyances and/or preferences; (b) if the Bankruptcy Court cannot finally resolve the claims by the Trustee to avoid or recover initial or subsequent transfers as fraudulent transfers, fraudulent conveyances and/or preferences, whether the Bankruptcy Court has the authority to render proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law, and (c) whether the Court should permissively withdraw the reference of the relevant adversary proceedings based on the Stern Decision for cause shown pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(d) (collectively referred to herein as the "Consolidated Briefing Issues").

B. By Order dated April 19, 2012, this Court ordered the following: (1) the consolidated resolution of the Consolidated Briefing Issues would govern all pending motions to withdraw the reference; (2) all individual briefing schedules where the motion presented only Consolidated Briefing Issues were vacated and those matters would be the subject of consolidated briefing; and (3) the parties to the remaining individual briefing schedules shall not address the Consolidated Briefing Issues in any further briefing. (See Order, In re: Madoff Securities, No. 12-MC-00115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. April 19, 2012) (ECF No. 22) (the "Common Briefing Order")).

C. Subsequent to the entry of the Consolidated Briefing Order, counsel for the Trustee prepared Exhibit A hereto identifying single cases or, in certain instances, the lead case of related adversary proceedings where defendants are represented by common counsel (the “Adversary Proceedings”), where the motions to withdraw the reference in the Adversary Proceedings only raised the Consolidated Briefing Issues, which require no further action by the parties because the motions will be the subject of consolidated briefing pursuant to the Consolidated Briefing Order.

D. On May 4, 2012, counsel for the Trustee convened a telephonic conference (the “Telephone Conference”) with the Court among counsel for the Trustee, the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”) and counsel for movants in nineteen (19) Adversary Proceedings, wherein counsel for the Trustee made an application for permission to submit a proposed order identifying all Adversary Proceedings that only raise issues wholly subsumed by the Consolidated Briefing Order. The Adversary Proceedings and relevant counsel that participated in the Telephone Conference are listed in Exhibit B hereto. The Court granted this request during a telephonic conference on May 7, 2012.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The motions to withdraw the reference in the Adversary Proceedings identified on Exhibit A hereto are governed by the Consolidated Briefing Order and shall be resolved through the common briefing ordered therein.
2. Any individual briefing schedules previously established with respect to motions to withdraw the reference pending in the Adversary Proceedings are hereby vacated.

3. The resolution of the Consolidated Briefing Issues shall govern the motions to withdraw the reference pending in the Adversary Proceedings and no further action is required with respect to such motions.

SO ORDERED.

JED S. RAKOFF, U.S.D.J.
